Parent Survey Questions
Please read each statement below. First, using the left side of the answer sheet, circle the letter that corresponds with how you felt about the statement BEFORE you took this class. Then, on the right side of the answer sheet, circle the letter that best describes how you feel NOW, since you’ve taken this parenting class. As you think about each statement, please do not try to look for a “right” answer—we want to know what you think.

   A  Strongly Disagree  B  C  D  E  Strongly Agree

11. Parents should play or do something fun with their children every day.
12. Parents should teach young children to do things for themselves.
13. Saying “I love you” to children is not necessary if parents show their love through their actions.
14. Children need encouragement as much as they need discipline.
15. Good parents don’t have time to relax.
16. Parents should say “please” to children when asking them to do something.
17. Sometimes yelling at children is the only way to get them to do what you want.
18. Children need discipline that hurts a little so that they will remember the lesson later.
19. Offering children rewards such as sweets or toys is a good way to get them to do what the parent wants.
20. Most kids learn what is expected of them well enough on their own.
21. Most homes these days are safe enough for young children without having to do anything special.
22. It confuses young children to give them choices, so just tell them clearly what you want.
23. Children should be allowed to go to bed when they want to.
24. When a child has a tantrum, give her a spank on the bottom and tell her to calm down.
25. Children age four and under are too young to do many things for themselves.

The next set of questions is about your child. Select the child that you are the most concerned about. Then using the scale below, on the left side of the answer sheet circle the letter on your answer sheet that best describes how often your child did each behavior BEFORE you took this parenting class. Then circle the letter that best describes how often your child does this behavior NOW.

   A  Almost never  B  Sometimes  C  Not sure  D  Often  E  Almost always

26. My child demands too much attention from me.
27. My child follows my directions.
28. My child becomes upset if he/she makes a mistake.
29. My child likes doing things for him/herself.
30. My child bosses others.
